

Jewish Disability Awareness, Acceptance & Inclusion Month (JDAIM)

LESSON PLAN 3-6

How are you feeling today?

JDAIM stands for:

Jewish Disability
Awareness, Acceptance & Inclusion
Month

“Including people with disabilities in everyday activities and encouraging them to have roles similar to their peers who do not have a disability is disability inclusion.”

What is JEWISH about inclusion and accessibility?

"You shall not curse the deaf
nor place a stumbling block
before the blind"

Leviticus 19:14

Let's watch

4. If you are talking with a person who is in a wheelchair, kneel or sit so you are at eye-level.

Activity

In breakout rooms, you and your partners will discuss:

1. What were some of the things you learned about Katie?
2. If Katie came to our class, how would you make her feel welcome?
3. What are some helpful ways to treat people who have disabilities?

Extension Activity

Create a picture that shows what inclusion looks like at your synagogue or school.

Wrap Up

Share one new thing you learned about disability
inclusion today
