

Jewish Disability Awareness, Acceptance & Inclusion Month (JDAIM)

LESSON PLAN TEENS

How are you feeling today?

JDAIM stands for:

Jewish
Disability
Awareness, Acceptance & Inclusion
Month

“Including people with disabilities in everyday activities and encouraging them to have roles similar to their peers who do not have a disability is disability inclusion.”

What is JEWISH about inclusion and accessibility?

"You shall not curse the deaf
nor place a stumbling block
before the blind"

Leviticus 19:14

Video Discussion

1. Do you see the people in this video as inspiring? Why or why not?
2. Some of the people in this video talked about representation. Do you think there is sufficient disability representation in the media? Why or why not?
3. Some of the people in the video were born disabled and some became disabled later in life. How do you think their experiences were different or the same?

Read in small group breakout rooms

Questions:

1. What is the main message of the article?
2. How does this article relate to JDAIM?
3. What is our responsibility as Jewish teens after learning about these topics?

Joe Biden & Stuttering

The Witches

Wrap Up

Share one new thing you learned about disability inclusion today