Michael Paul

Michael Paul volunteers extensively in the Philadelphia area Jewish community. He is a Trustee of the Jewish Community Foundation of Greater Philadelphia, Chair of its Insurance Advisory Committee and 2017 Edward N. Polisher Award Recipient. He is also a member of Temple Sinai's Life & Legacy Committee. He has been engaged with Jewish Learning Venture for the past 25 years, previously as President and a Board Member, and currently as a member of the Board of Trustees and the Institutional Advancement Committee. He has also served as President of the Upper Dublin Lodge of B'nai B'rith, Vice President and Board Member of Temple Sinai and Board Member of the Philadelphia Estate Planning Council.

As a Principal with RubinGoldman and Associates, a wealth advisory firm based in Bala Cynwyd, Michael provides specialized wealth management advice to business owners, high net worth families, and executives. His approach integrates planning, tax optimization and investment management as a comprehensive solution to assist clients in tax efficient wealth transfer and charitable endeavors.

He holds a Master of Laws in Taxation from Villanova University, a Juris Doctorate from Delaware Law School, and a Bachelor's degree in accounting from The Pennsylvania State University.

Michael and Susan, his wife of 36 years, live in Dresher, PA, with their goldendoodle, Rudy. They have two adult children, Jonathan, a surgeon in Atlanta, and Katie, a filmmaker in New York.

Securities offered through Equitable Advisors, LLC (NY, NY (212) 314-4600) member FINRA, SIPC (Equitable Financial Advisors in MI & TN). A special congratulations to Michael Paul on this well-deserved recognition.

Our relationship began in a professional setting, where you quickly distinguished yourself as not only highly knowledgeable and trustworthy but, above all, deeply genuine. Your authentic care for your clients, their families, and their futures was always evident.

Over time, as our connection evolved into a friendship, we had the privilege of seeing firsthand your unwavering dedication—to your work, your community, and especially to JLV. This honor is a fitting tribute to the person you are, and we couldn't be more thrilled for you.

JACK M. BARRACK HEBREW ACADEMY

Jack M. Barrack Hebrew Academy is a Jewish community day school for students in grades 6-12 that offers a college-preparatory curriculum combining in-depth critical analysis, rigorous text study, experiential education, and a focus on Jewish values.

“I would tell any parent that is considering Barrack that this is an amazing place.

The sense of community here, the warmth of all of the teachers, the dual curriculum, the success rate of getting into colleges... Barrack has exceeded all expectations. We made the absolute right choice for our son and our family.”
